A

Accidents, Farm (See Safety)
Accredited curriculum (editorial)	15
AGRICULTURAL ENGINEERING (Agricultural Engineers)
Agricultural engineering in a period of confusion	415
Measure of an agricultural engineer	653
Air Conditioning (See Ventilation)
Air flow, Some new data on resistance of grains to	493
Allen, R. L.
Development of a high-speed planter	215
Apples in Virginia, Cold storage of	161
Apple storages, Distribution of air in refrigerated	41
Asphalt roofings for farm buildings, Selection and application of	609
Assessments, Soil survey as a basis for equalization of rural	483
Auger types for farm machines	167
Awards (See Medalists)

B

Bainer, Roy
New concepts in side-delivery rakes	266
Baker, Vernon H.
Fundamentals of drying baled hay	21
The resistance of long and chopped hay to air flow	92
A plotting machine for the multiple- point potentiometer chart	101
Chemical composition of hay in barn drying	218
Brooding poultry with infrared energy	316
Thermocouple switching assembly for recording potentiometer	550
The oil-burning crop drying unit	657
Beasley, Robert P.
The Missouri farm water-management plan	541

Beatty, H. H.
Use of radiant energy for corn borer control	421
Bendixen, T. W.
Study of septic tanks and septic tank disposal systems	499
Berge, Orrin I.
Design and performance character- istics of the flywheel-type forage- harvester cutterhead	85
Blaney, Harry F.
Irrigation requirements of crops	665
Bloodworth, Morris E.
Drainage of irrigated lands in the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas	669
Bouyoucos blocks, The mechanics of field irrigation scheduling utilizing	148
Brooder, Underfloor heat	608
Brooding poultry with infrared energy	316
Brooding, Radiant-energy chick	278
Buildings (See Structures)
Butt, J. L.
Artificial curing of peanuts	27
Bywaters, James H.
Brooding poultry with infrared energy	316

C

Cable, Effect of herbicides on rubber- covered	497
Calderwood, D. L.
Use of radiant energy for corn borer control	421
Calorimeter for determining mean specific heats of solutions, A water	420
Cannon, B. M.
Thermocouple switching assembly for recording potentiometer	550
Chen, Robert
Effect of present installation practices on draintile loading (letter)	600
Clover as affected by moisture, Threshability of Ladino	674
Collins, E. V.
A new hitch for rear-mounted tractor equipment	216
Conveyor, Automatic shutoff device for ground-grain	546
CONSERVATION, Soil and Water (See also Drainage, Erosion Con- trol, Hydrology, Irrigation, Soils, Water Resources)
Computing excavation and capacity of dugout ponds	32
Planning water disposal for mini- mum maintenance	37

Flood control in the Little Sioux watershed in Iowa	152
The historical background of reclama- tion	321
Subsoil conditioning on claypans for water conservation	427
Some agricultural engineering prob- lems in soil and water conservation	481
The Missouri farm water-manage- ment plan	541
Corn borer control, Use of radiant energy for	421
Corrosiveness of D-D mixture, Effect of desiccant on	502
Cotton harvesting mechanization in the Southeast	612
Cotton mechanization studies in California	489
Cotton picker development, Twenty- five years of	593
Cotton to mechanization, Breeding and adapting	486
Creek flow gently, Making a	477
Cropsey, Myron G.
Simplifying poultry ventilation with mathematics	675
Curriculums, Accredited (editorial)	15
Cutterhead and silo blower, Calculation and design of	661
Cykler, J. F.
Effect of desiccant on corrosiveness of D-D mixture	502
Energy requirement for shearing pineapple	504

D

Dairy labor and construction economy	591
Davenport, M. G.
Drying and storing flaxseed in Texas	379
Davis, Roy B., Jr.
Fundamentals of drying baled hay	21
The resistance of long and chopped hay to air flow	92
Chemical composition of hay in barn drying	218
Thermocouple switching assembly for recording potentiometer	550
Deay, H. O.
Some engineering aspects of electric traps for insects	496
DEFENSE
Mobilization responsibilities (editorial)	15
Agricultural engineers on critical occupations list	52

DEHYDRATION (See also Drying)

Determination of water in some dehydrated foods .....	105
